“ Pam, Kay, Deborah and Families

Just heard the bad news this afternoon. So very sorry. I can still hear your Mom's voice; that nice resounding choir type voice. I know this is difficult for you guys. It probably will really hit you hard a couple months from now-perhaps driving down a road or other situation and it suddenly comes to you. The profound sadness and alone feeling. But, you guys have each other. Hang in there; each day is a new day to very slowly help ease the pain. Your Mom, as with most of the James, always seemed happy to me. I always wanted to be part of the "James" family.
