“ Miss Karen was the first person to welcome us to South Side when we moved here years ago, talked to me from then on like we were old friends. Then this year my daughter Alaina had her in PREK and they bonded instantly. God gained an Angel... we all will miss you so much.

I'll always remember when we first came down when Jimmy and Shelly moved down there. We all took a walk and Karen started telling ghost stories. She took off running and hid from us then jumped out and scared all of us. She could make you laugh. She was such a sweet heart. You well definitely be missed. Thought the world of you , you were so good to our son Jimmy and our grandchildren. 💕😭💔
