“ Mrs.Bartholomew was a genuine wonderful person. Caring and thoughtful of others no matter the circumstances. When I began teaching at South Haven Elementary School, my classroom was across the hallway from her classroom and what fund memories I have today. She was one of the best mentors a new teacher could ever dream of working beside them when beginning a new career. My sons have wonderful memories of her. We love Mrs. Bartholomew and we were blessed to have had a friend like her.
