Oh so it hard to accept memories. Our anniversary just passed would have been 52 years and your 73 birthday. It has only been a year you were smiling and cutting jokes with everyone that came to see you in the hospital just five more days it will be a year I brought you home for the Nashville hospital. My heart is breaking so. I love you!!! But I am still praying and keeping God in my life. Some sweet day we will be in each others arms once again. HUGS & KISSES

“ *It is hard for me to beleive today is a year we are in the emergency room and just receive the awful diagnoises you have liver and stomach Cancer. Our lifes from that minute to this minute has been unreal. My life ended that morning you took your last breath and the one tear I saw appear in corner of your eye. I know God gave you a peaceful journey to eternity but I still wish to still have you in my life. The house is so silent. You know it will soon be Oct 28, 2008. It will be our 52 anniversary. Hard to believe you eloped with me from Northlake, IL., to Tennessee and the house you brought me to and the room I first spend with you here on our wedding night as husband and wife, is where you took your last breath, and is now my permanent home. I miss you darling so much it is unexplainable. I know they same time will heal, but I don't see that happening to me, guess I can now understand how my Grandfather grieved himself to death. I am keeping myself busy and trying to find a life best I can but it is hard when you are all alone. Sleep my love until we meet again in the mansions in the sky. As you ask...part of article:

Clinical trials are underway to investigate the potential of Velcade in additional settings and in combination with other anti-cancer drugs to enhance treatment effects or reverse resistance(v).

Velcade has a well-defined safety profile and a favourable benefit-risk ratio. The most common side effects reported with Velcade include fatigue, gastrointestinal adverse events, transient thrombocytopenia and neuropathy, which is reversible in the majority of patients.##imported-begin##Beftriertmept##imported-end##

You would so proud of the garden this year. I didn't use any fertilizer or insect products on it produce loads of corn; tomatoes; cucumbers and three different kinds of squash even the Okra was picked way earlier than usual. God must of given the approval to you to watch over me with your Angel eyes. I know you must be in a more blessed place but I still want to be able to feel your touch and your presences near me. My love for you grows stronger every day I am so thank ful you asked me one day to be your wife I couldn't of picked no better than you. I will always keep you as my one and only!! “ Hi Honey

Time has slipped by so fast seems just today I lost you. Been by to see you today and put a new bird statue and also fixed your night light. Put flowers on your parents grave and said my hello to them.

I know death is a mystery to us but I still feel your presents near me, especially when I am about to make a decision I can feel you telling me if I am about to make a wrong statement or not. House feels so empty with out you even thou Kenny JR is home with his family being moving in a house in Henderson this coming Thursday. Christine cancer is spreading will have test results this Thursday to see how bad it is getting. Bill Cathy and family are moving to town this coming week. Mike Chumley and Cherella might be here Aug. 6 for a couple of days. Decoration day is a little over a week off, I will be there for you. I miss you terribly and my heart is still yours. I knew we had a strong love for one another but I didn't know how realize how strong. Looking forward to our meeting in the air. Hugs and kissess Jeanie.##imported-begin##Wife Jeanie##imported-end##

“ Three pictures of Pepaw

Three pictures upon the window sill,

One, the morning light does reveal.

Thin and tall at twentieth year,

Ready for where ever life might steer.

Youthful arms hold newly wedded dreams,

Stolen bride in borrowed seams.

In this autumn light the couple's love sings,

And greeted with family blessings.

Three pictures upon the window sill,

Another of midday light does reveal.

Now with creased brow and crowfeet eyes,

Of work and smile these lines lie.

Concrete be his work day by day,

Upon which support of his house stay.

Into this house now his grandchildren flow

Of his happiness and love they all know

*Three Pictures upon the window sill,
Last of evening's light does reveal.
His well weathered face one does find,
While the golden number fifty dances behind.
Arm again around his wife, as they stand.
Celebrating their anniversary now at hand.
Ripe be his labored fruit and with this he seems proud,
Witnessed by four generations gathered all around.*

*Three pictures upon the window sill,
Of which now no light does reveal
From the all three images the sun has set
From his earthly garden he left
So fast his light has slipped from your hands
For now with Holy Father he stands
Yet from these images light will forever shine
Within our hearts these memories we will forever find.*

“ *It is so lonsome without you here. I remember so many wonderful events we both had together and with our children and grandchildren. You were one special catch just don't really know the depth of a special person until you share so many days years and minutes. Each time I would tell you we are expecting you were just as excited about each one like it was the first. Well you would get a laugh out of Justin, he was checking the fence yesterday came in and said well memaw I got some bad news and some good news good news is the fence is okay, the bad news is I got Pepaw truck stuck in a mud hole in the pasture. HE is still trying to get it out along with Bill. The water wasn't working this morning and Justin went in the well house as you would have done and remembered you showing him how to fix the point that controls the shut off and on switch and repaired it with in no time. He always was right by your side as well as your two special girls Tiffany and Brittany. Well I guess I'll sign off for now. I Love You and miss you terribly. “Honey I miss you so much. I don't know when I'll ever get to quit crying for you or needing your arms around me to be able to hear your voice one more time or you walking down from the barn to the house or sitting beside me at our kitchen table or to see your gentle touch on handling a horse or to see your warm smile on your face the way you would always look at a grandchild; daughter or son and even all the children that became ours through marriage the way you would greet them with that unique way of yours, oh how the list goes on, this is one time we can't change our minds and return to each others arms. I lay here at night or sitting any where and remember what we meant to each other and how God had blessed us with a wonderful bunch of children; grandchildren and great grandchildren, everyone has so much love for you and respect. You have been a perfect example to each one of them and you even touched so many other lifes beside your family members. I thank God that one day I saw a 6'1" handsome guy from Tennessee getting out of a car with a group of southern boys in a trailer court in Melrose Park, IL. you all challenged the group of girls I was with to a baseball game and then I had the pleasure of being asked out on a date with you, however my friend got in an argument with her boy friend so we didn't get to go out that year. I met you again a year later and then I had the pleasure of dating you and a little over 2 months later I ended up eloping with you to Corinth, Mississippi to start a marriage that lasted for 51 years.(My father gave me orders to stay away from that hillbilly corner on Manheim and Lake Street, sure glad I didn't listen.) You were a diamond in my life we did have some flaws but, the strength of our love carried us through it all I wouldn't trade any of it for it was what made us to bound so tight only God was able to seperate us. I will always love you and I wish we could still be together but I can still feel your touch and your arms around me, here is a big kiss and my arms around you. I pray that my love and calling your name constantly is not keeping you from resting in peace, I wouldn't want to be causing you any disturbance while you are waiting for that big meeting in the air where we will once again be looking upon each other face and the Lord's. "Rest in peace my dear, until we meet in heaven." I will try to accomplish all the advise that you gave to me while you were trying to raise this young wife of 16 years old for this pass 51 years. "I will love you for eternity." Your Wife - Jeanie!!!##imported-begin##Your Loving Wife##imported-end##

However, as I got older I realized that my grandfather Kenneth Page worked as hard as two men, raised a family the size of two men combined have, had the strength of two men, and had a heart the size of two men. “ Sis Page my heart is broken by the news of Bro Page’s passing, but I am left with many fond memories of bro Page. Bro Page, you were more than just a friend to me but, you were more like my father. You had such a big heart, and you loved to laugh. You made my family and I feel right at home with yours. I was lucky to have called you my friend for the last twenty years. You and Sis Page will always have a special place in my heart.

I will always remember the times we all went fishing, setting the boat down on a school of stripe bass and pulling them in for about forty minutes nonstop, and me saying we needed to move the boat so we could take a break and have lunch, boy that was a fun day. Or the time you put Sis Page in the boat and forgot to put the plug in, and she ask am I supposed to have water around my ankles after you had pulled the truck up from the river, laughing out loud we almost sunk the boat with her in it, I never saw us move so quick getting the boat back on the trailer. But the funniest was when you and I went to get something and on the way back Bill and Ken Jr. were on the bank with all the poles set out next to each other in a line, you looked at me with a funny grin and said watch this as you gunned the boat and sweep toward shore as you tried to send a big wave toward them, and in the process the boat grabbed each pole by the line and doink, doink, doink pulled about six poles into the water with the lines rapped around the prop. We laughed so hard until they told us it was our poles in the water. It’s still funny to this day.

Bro Page you were one of a kind, and I will miss you, but I look forward to seeing you one day very soon around the throne of God. Oh and I told my family that you probably pulled in a nice size catfish as you cross that final river Jordan. God bless you Bro Page, and our prayers are with you and your family during this time.##imported-begin##Dean, Dorcas, Jeremy, and Ryan Hamilton##imported-end##

“ Pepaw- I was so happy that my two boys got to see you one last time before you left us. All the way down to see you I was telling them about all the great times that you made possible. My earliest memory is of you showing me how to sharpen a knife and skin a raccoon. But I would have to say the funniest was my first attempt at water skiing on the Fox River. I don't want to go into too much detail but I remember your laugh when I lost my shorts. Some of my favorite times were the countless fishing trips in the summer time. I think the worst was the day you got me out of jail. Because of you I got to ride horses, drive go-carts, shoot guns and even learn how the foundation of a house is built even though I didn't last too long at the construction business it gave me a sense of what a hardworking man will do for his family. I want you to know that you brought a lot of joy to my life. You were always good for a great story about the good old days. Sometimes I thought that you were brave because no matter how many grandkids you had you would always take us all. You never left any one of us out even when I would ask you to. As I sit here and write this for you I hope that I will be a good father and maybe even a better grandfather because I had a great example to follow.###imported-begin##Robert,Najat,Marcell.Carmine Shorette ##imported-end##

“ Many people remember you as a carpenter who built structural homes in the material sense. However I will remember you my father as the carpenter who built a strong family home. You taught us that the foundation is made of love. The frame is made of strength. The roof is made of unity. We were taught that we will make mistakes in life. But we forgive forget learn and strive on as long as we have the each to love be strong for one another and stay united. “ Archbishop Oscar Romero:
It helps, now and then, to step back and take a long view.

The kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision.

*We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work.
Nothing we do is complete, which is a way of saying that the kingdom always lies beyond us.
No statement says all that could be said.
No prayer fully expresses our faith.
No confession brings perfection.
No pastoral visit brings wholeness.
No program accomplishes the church's mission.
No set of goals and objectives includes everything.*

*This is what we are about.
We plant the seeds that one day will grow.
We water seeds already planted,
knowing that they hold future promise.*

*We lay foundations that will need further development.
We provide yeast that produces far beyond our capabilities.*

*We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well. It may be incomplete,
but it is a beginning, a step along the way,
an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest.*

We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker.

*We are workers, not master builders; ministers, not messiahs.
We are prophets of a future not our own.*

Amen.

I just wanted to tell you that I love you with all my heart. And I want to thank you for all that you have done, and making everyone feel so specisl in their own little ways. You are very special, and very dear to my heart. I love you so much Pepaw, and I miss you so much. I just sit and remember all of the good times and every wonderful memory that you are apart of. Like, when you let me drive your wagon, and of course, I was nervous and couldn't control the thing, but I wasn't afraid cuz you were there to take over incase something happened. You mean so much to us all. I love you Pepaw, and you are in my heart and always will be. Thank you for all the laughter and all the smiles, even if you did call me short. I love you Pepaw. We know your watching over us, and we will make you proud. I love you.##imported-begin##Amanda Hood##imported-end##*

“ Kenny,

I thank God that Trish and I were able to see you one more time. You were more than a brother-in-law to me, you were like a father to me in so many ways. You taught me how to fish, hunt and to be a great father. But most of all you taught me how to be a big man with a big heart. It seems just like yesterday when you and I were sitting on the bank of a river and you teaching me how to hook my worm. You see, it was the gentle and kind things that you did for me that made such a large impact on me. I look forward to the day when you and I will sit together again on the bank of a river and fish together again. Say "HELLO" to Mom for me and until then "THANKS FOR THE GREAT TIMES AND MEMORIES". I love you with all my heart, I will always keep you in my heart and mind!! Peace my brother##imported-begin##Mike, Trish, Jessica & Cody Nissen##imported-end##

“ This is a sad day for us all. We have lost a great person. I know Ken will continue to live within our hearts and minds. I was nine years old when Ken started dating my big sister, Jeanette. I remember watching him become a loving and devoted husband and father. I'll forever cherish my fond memories of him.###imported-begin###Mary Nissen Bender###imported-end##

“ Dad I love you with all my heart and I will forever miss you and cherish you as my father for ever more. You are the best and most dedicated father a girl could ever ask for. I could have not hand picked a better and more loving father even if I tried. Love you Dad and you will be with me forever.###imported-begin##Kristine Page Hood###imported-end##
