“ Dear Lara,

I am Michelle Welliver's sister-in-law.

Please know that we are so, heartfelt, sorry for your loss. I am the mother of five and I know that your loss could have happened to any mother and you and your family are in our prays.

The Lord wants you to know that your babies are with him and that you will see them again someday. Some times in this life there are just senseless accidents and that is what this was. Don't let anyone touch your heart with words of hate. Michelle has told me of the messages you have been getting and the lord will deal with their hard heartedness.

You may ask how I know for sure that your babies are with the Father. I know because I too have a baby girl with him. Unlike you I did not have the blessing of raising her in this life, for I miscarried her at about four and a half months pregnant. We named her Katie. The night before the miscarriage the Lord came to me in a dream. He told me that Katie was sick and would have to go to Heaven and be with Him. I asked if I could hold her and He said for a moment. Then he reached down and took her in his arms. To this day I can still feel the weight of that child in my arms. The next morning when I awoke I was bleeding and had to go to the hospital. When they did the ultrasound they said that everything was where it was supposed to be, but there was no baby. I occasionally dream of her in heaven with her grandparents each time she has grown a little more and is happy and whole.

Remember you are the Father's child and he will not forsake you or leave you.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. Matt.5:4

Your sister in Christ,

“ Lara, I am so sorry for your loss. I can't even begin to imagine what the loss of one child would be like, let alone two. Please take this time to draw even closer to God. He will be your best source of comfort. Through prayer and the promises in the bible like John 11:25 and Revelation 21:4 he gives us hope. Lisa##imported-begin##Lisa Slinkard##imported-end##
