

Kori Jean Goff

September 15, 2025 - October 26, 2025

Kori Jean "KJ" Goff, daughter of Alana Goff, passed away on October 26, 2025 at just six weeks old. Born in Jackson, Tn on September 15, KJ was a fighter from the very moment she entered this world- her Moma's little NICU miracle. Though her time here was brief, she brought endless love and joy to all who knew her, her beautiful smile lighting up every room and every heart she touched. KJ is survived by her loving mother, Alana Goff of Lexington; Aunts, Jillian Maxwell (Tyler) of Darden. Laikyn Greenway of Lexington and Leah and Lanie Smith of Lexington and Uncle Konnor Goff and grandparents- April Greenway of Lexington and Josh Goff (Haley) of Lexington; She is also deeply loved and remembered by many great grandparents, cousins, extended family members, and friends. KJ's short but beautiful life will forever remind us of the power of love, hope and the strength found in even the smallest hearts. Graveside services will be 2:30pm Thursday at Goff Cemetery, 401 Perry Rd. Lexington, with visitation Thursday 10am-2:00pm at Pafford Funeral Home. The family has requested to wear bright colors to the visitation and services instead of traditional dark clothing. This is a celebration for KJ going home.
