“ Uncle Larry was one of the many musicians in the family, and oh how he loved it when the family got together to play and sing. We all did. He was such a gentle man and I will miss him dearly. I'm sure he'll be with my mom and the rest of his siblings that went before, doing some serious celebrating and singing. May the Lord bless you and keep you Uncle Larry. For the rest of the family, I pray for comfort. God bless you all.
