“ Here on earth we all have lost such a beautiful light, but heaven sure has gained a truly beautiful angel... My heart goes out to Brandi's family during this very hard time... I used to work with Brandi at Wal-Mart and we had a lot of very nice talks... I always felt good after talking with her... she was always so positive even when she was going through such hard times... she always had a smile on her face and that positive attitude that you just couldn't ignore... and that's how I will always remember her... that beautiful smile and positive attitude... you will be missed down here on earth, Brandi... until we meet again, fly high with those angels, honey...
