“ Linda will be sadley missed. My sister & I spent alot of time with her & Nyra when we were young. She was such a kind person, I think she sent my Mom about two cards every week she was in the nursing home just to let her know she was thinking of her. When my daughter Sue-Ann had her brain bleed I know we were in her prayers, & she sent cards & money. Then again when she died she sent money & a nice card. She also sent money when my granddaughter Alexandria graduated. You wouldn't find a kinder heart. She had even told me she wanted to buy our cousin a headstone that did not have one after several years. I will never forget the last time my husband & I were in Tennessee her & Johnny wanted us to meet for dinner, they took us for Chinese food & we all went back to our motel & spent a few hours just sitting & talking & visiting. I enjoyed it so much. You are all in my thoughts & prayers. I love you all. Jo Ann###imported-begin###Jo Ann (Alexander) Vasher###imported-end###

“ Aunt Linda was a hoot! She always had the craziest stories to tell. I can't think of a single instance when she didn't leave me laughing. She never failed to offer me a hug, a smile, and a kind word. I will miss her. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My deepest sympathy to all the family, and a comforting hug to all of you. Wish I could be there....when Linda was little, I probably carried her hundreds of miles! I thought Nyra and Linda were a precious gift! Linda will be sorely missed!

God bless you all!

“ There is no doubt in my mind that Aunt Linda would have written us a similar message as this one:

*To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived
okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here
is just eternal love.*

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up
and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

*It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.
As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.*

There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man.

*God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.*

*When you think of my life
on earth, and all those loving years
because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.*

Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.

I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.

But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.

But

one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.

I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.*

It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...

that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.

*If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,
then you can say to God at night....."My day
was not in vain."*

And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low,
just lend a hand to pick*

him up, as on your way you go.

When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;

I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.

And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember

you're not going.....you're coming here to me.
