“ I became acquainted with Sister Lula Mae Butler about a year ago at Center Hill Holiness Church. She was so kind and welcoming to me. She still had an amazing memory and shared with me some things in her life from the past. I cherish the time that I was able to spend with her. Heaven's gain is our earthly loss, but I plan to see her on the other side.

“ Sis. Butler has been a true friend and christian example to our church family . I always enjoyed talking with her at church and on the phone. She was always willing to help me. With gardening advice or show me how to quilt. I will miss her.

“ Prayers for her family she was a very sweet soul. I worked with her at the Manor and she knew my grandmother, Martha McPeake and my dad, Ralph McPeake, he loved to aggravate her on his visits to see grandma. I just fell in love with her, prayers for all of her family. 🙏🙏
