“ Sis. Beecham will be greatly missed.
We loved her and Bro. Beecham dearly, they were our dearest friends. They were TRUE Christians. They were a light to us many times when it seemed we were in dark places.
Our prayers are with you now and in the coming days
God bless and keep you. Sis. Russell###imported-begin##Louise “ Sis. Brinda I know you'all will miss her so much but she truly is in a better now. She is in Heaven with Bro. Cloyce and I am sure she is praising God as she never has before. Being in such poor health for so long she wasn't as able to do as much as she probably would have wanted too. But now she has no pain and no sorrows. I am sorry for your family's loss. Just a little note from mom and I. We love the Bowman family and the Beecham family.

“ I only had the pleasure of knowing Ms. Beecham for 2 yrs. I have worked at Briarwood since 2009, and she has always and will remain an inspiration to me. I can not recount the many times that I would hear her singing hymns, and how she always spoke nice and kinds words to everyone. She will be truly missed. I know that she is now in heaven with a new body, and is dancing on the streets of gold. I'm sure her crown is filled with many jewels and she is rejoicing and singing with the angels. I am sorry for your loss, but I know this is not a time of grievance, but a time of celebration because after all the many trials and valleys she has finally made it home.##imported-begin##Heather Thatcher##imported-end##

“ Sorry about your loss of so great Lady. Sis. Beecham was an inspiration. Bro. & Sis. Beecham were so wonderful to our family throughout the years, and a much needed help in our time of grief, in the loss of Bro. Paul Russell and Jerry Russell. (my Dad and Brother) and such a help to Sis. Russell. She, like Bro. Beecham will be missed, but Oh what a celebration they will be in.
