“ Sis. Alene Laster was a very precious Lady....she loved her family and her friends with the Love of Jesus... unconditionally. "MeMa", the name so many of us refer to Sis. Laster by, was like another Mother to me.....I was fortunate enough to spend some time with her recently and she told me several times that she just wanted to go to see Jesus....I have no doubt today that she is with her Lord and clothed in a new body that has no pain, she has full eyesight and hearing!! While we will do our grieving and missing you here, we are so thankful that you are safely in the arms of Jesus where you wanted to be! I love you MeMa!! Jane Bishop Bigham
