Matt I have no idea if you will see this... but I don't know how to reach you. I just heard the news about your Dad. I'm very sorry. He & my stepdad Tim were close friends & he always talked a lot about your Dad. I know you miss him. Thinking about you & hoping you're doing okay.

“ Mark was one of the kindest, thoughtful person I had the privilege of knowing. From our days at Chain factory to the years of trusting them with the pest control of my home, he was always polite, dependable, good hearted and just the “best“! My condolences and prayers for you all in your loss of a Mark. He was a one of kind guy and will be remembered by several of us who considered him a friend.

“ Today we lost a father, husband, brother, friend and a grandfather. Mark was a kind soul with few words but we always knew the love he had to give and the joy he brought to any room. Although I have a few memories, I will always look back and smile and cherish those precious moments. I will greatly miss you and always have you in my thoughts. My prayers and condolences to the Sikes family 🙏❤️

“ Mark and I as well as his brothers and sister grew up spending precious time at our grandparents home in WV. His Mother and my Father were brother and sister. We looked forward to seeing each other every summer and fished, shot BB Guns, played with each other in the creek and ran around the small farm and climbed trees as well as the mountain terrain. Mark was a little shy and quiet but always smiling, always full of love. He was tall and also loved to eat. Our grandmother always had something special for each one of us and peanut butter candy was one of Mark's and his brother's many favorites. She always had it for them. I will forever love and miss him.... until I see him again.
