“ Dear Cox Family: I was so sorry to hear from Aunt Jessilyn about Ms. Mary's passing. It had been years since I saw Ms. Mary when she attended my grandmother's (Mary Sue Duke) funeral last November, and it was a really special treat to be able to see her and speak with her at that time. I will always remember Mary and Bobby as extremely kind, grounded folks who loved not all their own kids, but all children. My Halloween celebrations were never complete until I had made the trip to the Cox house!

May God grant you peace and a sense of His steady presence at this time. I will always remember Ms. Mary's smile and Mr. Bobby's laughter and I know that you all will, too.
