“ Ms. Holmes was a very kind and loving lady. Our son, Jimmy Maples, the deceased husband of Valerie, thought the world of her. He talked about the food she would cook and bring to the house, but, most of all he remembered her kindness and loving spirit and he loved her very much. We appreciate the love and kindness she showed him. We pray that the family will find comfort and peace in our Sweet Lord Jesus and feel His loving arms around them. May you find peace in His word in the days ahead. Love In Christ, Clarence & Patsy Maples

“ We have many fond memories of Mub. I loved working with her when we had daycare at the church, where she was the cook for us. That woman sure could cook. Her Coconut cake was the best. Everyone wanted a piece or the whole cake. I know she will be greatly missed. I remember our last visit with her before our move to Florida. We sang together Amazing Grace. Never forget my friend.
