“ Can't seem to find the right words to fit this precious woman...there are not enough words to describe how awesome her life has touched mine. Her beautiful smile and her laugh. Her hugs that were real....nothing fake about her. As a young girl I have memories of staying at their home and felt such love and peace. If I saw her at her home or in another state at church conference...she was still the same...so true and real. Heaven has gained a true angel....you will be missed...but heaven's full of joy, laughter and shouting because I am sure when Cindy (my sister) saw her....well....all of heaven knew she had arrived! Your dream and goal has come true...you made it! It won't be long and we will see you soon.

“ I could never share all the memories I have with Ma & Pa Page they took care of my sister and I when my mom was having a hard time and we continued to stay in their lives from there on out. Ma would cook for everyone and tell the if you leave here Hungry is your own fault. I will forever love them with all my heart.
