Tribute Wall

“ Pafford Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Mildred Raymell Scott

Pafford Funeral Home - June 20, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ My mother, Polly James, and Mildred were friends since childhood. The last few years Mildred, Mama, and others from their childhood and teenage "gang" had been reuniting every summer for a few days, spending time together reminiscing and catching up. They all kept in touch via phone and mail in between seeing each other for their "reunion" in the summer. I meet Mildred at one of those reunions and continued to see and speak with her on occasion. She always seemed upbeat, cheerful, in spite of difficulties and tragedies in her life. She always greeted both me and my daughter by name and made us feel as if we had known her all of our lives. I know she will be greatly missed by many family members and lots of friends. She was a true friend to Mama, a lifelong friend, a rarity now a days. May you rest in the comfort of God's Word, "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."###imported-begin##phillis mullennex##imported-end##

“ Anita, Aleia, and Alex,

I am so sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one is never easy. There is nothing anyone can say to make it easier or to make the hurt go away. Just let your friends and family surround you, to let the hurt be eased.

We know that going to heaven is good and we know we do not mind them going. We just wish they could come back!!!

“ Mildred was such a sweet lady that was a dear friend to my mother. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her. May her family and friends have comfort to know that she is in the arms of her heavenly father our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“ *Within my book of memories
Are special thoughts of you.
As I turn the pages, and recall each single thought, I realize the happiness that knowing you has brought.*

There are memories of the times we've shared both bright and sunny days.

There are memories of reading comic books, dating boys and picking cotton for such little pay.

There are memories of all those notes, we would write back and forth,

*When we would just get together,
laugh and talk of this or that.*

*And when I recall these memories
As I go along life's way
I find they grow more precious still with each passing day.*

*Farewell my dearest friend
I'll cherish the memories
till we meet again.*

Friends Forever
