“ Our sweet Papa has been gone from us for a month, our hearts are heavy and we are so sad. Our loss and pain is beyond anything I could have ever imagined, that you could feel this pain and still live. Our Mutti misses her mate of 72.5 years. He was one of the greatest man I have ever know or ever will. His legency will live on in the future generations, we will tell them about this great man and also in the ones yet to come. The Wulfert blood line and name will continue for future generations. Love you my Papa.

“ I can remember going to the "Wulfert" home on several occasions when I was little. My dad though Mr. Nick was so special. I can remember when my brother James married a woman from Greece (Nota) and we went to visit the Wulfert" family to let my brother and sister-in-law visit them. The "Wulfert" family is truly a wonderful family and they were/are so proud to be Ameicans. They love this land.##imported-begin##James and Doris Austin Smith##imported-end##
