

Mrs. Woodrow "Woodie" Brown

April 6, 1913 - February 5, 2004

Graveside services for Mrs. Woodrow "Woodie" Oakley Brown are scheduled for 1:00pm, Saturday, February 7, 2004 at Lexington Cemetery with Bro. Dan Hughes officiating. Mrs. Brown, age 90, died at Lexington Hospital late Thursday. She had been a resident of Lexington Manor since 2002, previously living in Memphis for many years. She was the daughter of the late Doshia and H. C. Oakley, living in Lexington and attending schools in Henderson County. She and her husband, Mr. Williard Brown owned Brown Antiques in Gadsden, TN for many years before returning to Memphis. She attended Highland Street Church of Christ in Memphis. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Williard Brown, sisters, Bennie Mae Parker, Edward Cogdell, Jessie Fisher, Mary Oakley, and brothers, Thompsie Oakley and Polk Oakley. Survivors include her nieces Jane McCarver and Jean Hunt of Lexington, Martha Leggitt of Arlington, TX, and eleven great nieces and great nephews. In lieu of flowers the family requests gifts to Juno Church of Christ or Independence Church of Christ or charity of donor's choice.
