

Nita Threadgill Hart

March 7, 1922 - November 17, 2009

Nita Threadgill Hart was born March 7, 1922 in Bemis, Tennessee and passed on November 17, 2009.

Nita grew up in Lexington and attended Lexington High School and Bowling Green College, which is now Western Kentucky University, where she was a member of Beta Omega Chi Sorority. She married Norris Beal Hart in 1945 and started her family in 1946. Nita worked for the Henderson County Extension Service until she moved with her family to Columbus, Georgia in 1965. While in Columbus, Nita worked for the Human Resources Department at Fort Benning. Then in 1984, Nita and Norris retired and moved back home to Lexington. Nita was active in many social and bridge clubs as well as her church, First United Methodist. She was an active and faithful member, where she had been in numerous church circles, had served on the church board and was still working the annual "Bean Luncheon". In addition to her church, Nita loved music, traveling and playing cards. She and her husband, Norris, were also founding members of Pine Tree Country Club in Lexington. Her passion was playing bridge; however, her most important treasures were her friends and family, to whom she was totally dedicated. She is preceded in death by her parents, Roy Lafayette Threadgill and Opal Winslow Threadgill, her sister, Virginia Threadgill Dodds, as well as her husband, Norris Beal Hart. Nita is survived by her four sons, Montie Beal (Sandra) of Memphis, Ronald Rick of Nashville, Billy Roy (Becky) of Hendersonville and John Gregory (Janie) of Birmingham. She is also survived by her grandchildren Michael Beal Hart (Christy), Clayton Wilson Hart (Karly), Amy Hart Mills (Brad), Whitney Hart Schickling (Chris), John Drew Hart (Julie), Susan Elizabeth Hart, John Matthew Hart (Julie), Joseph Andrew Hart (Diana) and Nathan Daniel Hart and numerous great grandchildren.

Visitation will be at Pafford Funeral Home (Lexington, TN) on Thursday evening from 5 to 8pm. The funeral service will be at the First United Methodist Church (Lexington, TN) on Friday morning at 11am with visitation preceding the service at 9am.
