“ Dearest Cindy and Chris, and to all of your families, I know there are no words that can take away the aching pain, as I know life will never be the same again. I pray for all of you to find the strength to cope and struggle on. In those quiet alone moments when you close your eyes and drift to your beautiful Noah memories may a warmth fill the pain that is in your heart and force a smile of joy on your face. I know this is the hardest thing you will all ever have to go through. You are such a close christian family, When our LORD is not carrying you, lean on each other. love you all and am sorry I can not be with you. “ Cindy and Chris,

Your family is truly in my heart at this time. No words will take away the pain, although I found comfort in these:

Ecclesiastes 3: 1

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven.

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to reap that which is planted.

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing.

A time to get and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace."

John 10:11

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

Hebrews 13:2

Be not forgetful to entertain strangers for thereby some have entertained angels unawares

Revelation 21:4

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

We were truly blessed to have entertained angels. Now there is no more pain.
