“ Tylene and Michael,

Your Mom was a wonderful friend to me and I will always remember her and the times we shared. I tried very hard to make her trips to the doctor and for her treatment fun! She loved you two very much. And although I didn't get to meet Matt when he was home, she was very proud to have gotten to see him and spend some time with him.

I had just finished my daily Bible study when I found out that Opal had gone to be with the Lord. I will always remember the words God gave to me that gave me comfort...."We are never closer to God that when he wraps his arms around us and brings us home".###imported-begin##Jennifer Phillips###imported-end##

“ I only knew Opal for a short from the Lexington Senior Center. She was very friendly and jolly through her illness.

Her smile will be missed greatly. We all love you Opal and God bless your family. Cookie###imported-begin##Lillian"Cookie"Austin###imported-end##
