“ I am very sorry to hear this. I talked to her not too long ago. Didn't know her very well but she was special to me because her mother and I were best friends all our growing up years. We attended school together until she & Paul got married. Pam was kin to me too. It was only 4th cousins but I count it because her mom and I were like sisters. So sorry all of you, her family.

there are no words that can express the sorrow i feel over the loss of my dear best friend Pam, we have shared a lifetime of memories, sad, happy, tragic, and through them all we had each others support of comfort. i will miss her more than i can ever express, i am happy that her suffering is now in the past and now she has a new beautiful body, and no tears, no pain. we were best friends for 56 years and never had a cross word, thank you lord for such a blessing and a friend like no other. love you and will think of you each day. i already wish i could go to the phone and call you and share too this sorrow of loss i feel. we both never wanted to be the last one standing and left behind. will see you again one day. much love to you my friend, donna

“ So sorry about Pam. One consolation - we know she is with Jesus and has no more suffering. That doesn't take the pain away, but we have the wonderful assurance that we will see her and be with her again. May God give comfort to each of you.
