“ There are so many great memories involving Pam and Roy it's hard to pick just one but a couple do stand out... I remember back about 4 years ago Pam and Roy and I went to Nashville for an event with about a thousand of our closest friends and on Saturday night there was a party at the convention center and Pam and I were talking about how there's no way we can stay up late hanging with all these young kids...we got there, socialized with everybody ,the DJ started playing and we danced a little and before we knew it we're having so much fun.. we were exhausted but stayed to the end and we were so proud of ourselves... I'll never forget that weekend.. I love you Pam..fly high my friend....

“ A beautiful woman of the LORD, inside and out - a heart of "pure gold" to everyone that knew her, especially the ladies in her SS Class at Sand Ridge Baptist Church. We will miss her sweet smile, but rejoice that she's smiling even bigger now, as she is face to face with JESUS, whom she proclaimed and loved so much!!
