I read the name this morning and could NOT believe what I read. I just knew it was not OUR Pam. I am so sorry for your loss. Every time I saw her I asked about the girls and their babies. “ So many birthdays we celebrated with slumber parties and get together with our friends for so many years. Then we got busy with life and working and raising our little ones and now I sit here wishing I could say HAPPY BIRTHDAY to you today just one more time yet that was not God's plan and the rest of us are left to deal with it. You are celebrating throughout eternity today while our hearts are breaking. As I have prayed so hard for you and your family the last few weeks, I will continue to pray for Billy and the girls, the rest of your family and especially those grandbabies that they will always be reminded what a special person and friend you were and how much you loved them. I cherish the memories of my dear friend and Happy Birthday in Heaven.

Love,
