I met Ms. Pat when I worked at People's bank in Sardis. I took awhile but we became friends. Whenever we saw each other at Sardis Senior Center, we hugged and spent time together. Rest In Peace dear friend, you've earned it. I will miss you.

I had so much respect for Pat. She was someone that I saw go through so much heartache and pain with strength that could only come from her Savior. May the love of family and friends console you all at this time and times to come. She was a good Christian lady who served the Lord as well as many others.

I really thought a lot of Pat. She was one to be admired for all the work that she did for others. We were in UMW together and took lots of trips to those meetings and everyone always looked up to her for advice. Praying for comfort to you all at this time. Dorothy McBride
