“ *My husband kept telling me about this guy he partied with in Mid Town in the eighties. They used to hang out at the Body Shop and "had a lot of fun". The husband said he used to be a runner and that he was from Lexington and thought he knew me. When I finally met him it was David. I hadn't seen him in about forty years. We bellied up and talked about old times. He spent more time with my sister Patti than me, but we brought up names I hadn't heard in ages Patrick said he was a cool guy.. Rest easy friend. “ Our prayers are with David's family and friends. This in indeed a sad day. David lived more in his 20s and 30s that most live in life. He blessed us all with his music and his spirit. We will all remember his mischievous grin and the twinkle in his eye. Benny, you are probably right. I can see him now, front and center with a tamborine and a microphone in his hands. Red hair and all. We will miss you David.

“ He brought a lot of joy and good times with his music and band, Raisin Kane. They made West Tennessee proud and I know how he loved the music. Prayers with the family.
