I will always remember Peggy as an out going, bubbly, pint size young girl, with a smile as big as Texas. I cherish the friendship we shared during our Sardis High School days with fondness. I believe Peggy was one of the most school spirited, fun loving, happy go lucky girls I had the privilege to call friend. We often ran into each other through the years, and it would feel like time stood still. We would once again be those two young chatty girls with stories and memories to share, then enjoyed catching up on day to day living, ending with a warm sincere hug. My heart goes out to her family, and also to all the people that knew and loved her. I praise God, that the pain she endured is now over. Peggy's earthly body is not with us, but her spirit and memory always will be. If God was looking for a powerhouse of a cheerleader, he got one of the best that the class of 74 had to offer. RIP Darlene 'Matthews' Dyer
