“ As an adult, I did not know Ray, but when I was a child my dad, Russell Eason, used to bring the family to Scott's Hill for visits. We usually stayed with his favorite cousin, Lena, who was Ray's mother. I remember that he was bigger and older than I was and I was afraid he might tease me. I soon learned that wasn't the way Ray was. He was a kind and gentle as he could be. After that I looked up to Ray and was always glad to see him and hear about how he was getting along. The last time I saw him was at a Doe Creek reunion about three years ago. He and my husband hit it off and they enjoyed a good conversation. I'm sorry there will be no more opportunities. I send my love and condolences to his wife, Doris, his children, sisters, Doris and Patricia and all of the family. I am so very sorry for your loss.
