“ Dear Ms Jo and Family

We the American Legion join others in extending our sincere condolences on the passing of your dear Mr Bob. Now that your Labor of Love is complete may God now go to work to heal your hearts as you travel on a grief journey for a while. We want to share some good news and it is that the God who created all things Knows and Cares about each of you and He is aware how you feel. God is the God of ALL COMFORTS. That passage shows that He will supply everything you will need for a grief journey. A wise man once wrote, "Healing comes through story." The way to navigate a grief journey is to tell Bob stories. "The good ones, the bad ones, and the silly and sad ones". Tell them for as long as you choose to. we proudly honor Mr. Bob for his faithful service to the U. S. Marine Corp and the United States of America. May the Lord walk with you each day on this journey and return the peace and joy of walking with Jesus.

“ Bob was truly one of the best people I ever met. He had a heart of gold and he would do anything for anybody. He was the most knowledgeable person, certainly that I knew, but probably in America regarding a laminator. I was secure in knowing that if a problem surfaced with a laminator repair that was beyond my knowledge there was always Bob to the rescue. I just wish I had one more opportunity to truly thank Bob from the bottom of my heart for all he has done for in my 43 years of business, and just for being such a good friend. I know he will be missed by many people he touched. Rest In Peace, Bob.
