“ I was fortunate to witness Shane grow from a skinny bright faced youth into a fine upstanding young man. Shane and my younger Brother Louis have been best friends for so long that it is hard for me to think of one without the other. He was one of the good ones, always willing to lend a helping hand, always there when times got tough, and he will be so very missed. I got to see him last Sunday. Shane had been sent home, to my Brother's house with hospice. Louis had let me know that Shane did not have much time left in this world, so I went over to see him, for what proved to be the last time. He was weak, but he knew who I was. When it came time to leave I bent down close to his ear, patted his arm, and whispered, "I've got to get going Shane, take good care of yourself buddy". His reply was the most honest and sincere, " I love you J.C.", that I have ever heard. Tears will flow and hearts will be broken, but I will always recall his good nature and remember him with a smile. I am lucky to have known him and I fortunate to call him my friend. To his Mother Jimmy, his twin Sister Melane, and his best friend Louis, I offer my most sincere condolences. Please let me know if you need anything at all.
