“ I have many memories from staying at Elmer and Nilar's house in the '50's and '60's. I loved having watermelon outside the house in the horrid heat. I liked going to the 10 cent store and 25 cent movies. My first time to visit by myself I sat at the back of the bus. When I arrived at Lexington the twins couldn't stop laughing at me through the bus window. They had to explain to me the reason. Later I loved when Elmer would give us a car off the lot especially a '63 Bonneville chocolate convertible and I could drive. I was six months older than the twins so I had my driver's license first. We always tried to see how fast we could go. We didn't worry because Uncle Ollie was the sheriff. This also must have been when I began my love of Corvettes. I got one as soon as I could afford it, the same price a my year's teaching salary. The boys loved to watch me set my hair in big curlers, then wait for me to style it. Nilar just said they were fascinated with a girl. Being the teasers that they were they would put me on a fast horse at the horse barn and tell me he was gentle, then laugh as I was frightened out of my mind racing around the track back to the barn. Then life happened, Glynn went to Viet Nam, I wrote him constantly. We three dated, got married, each had a girl- all close in ages 3, 2, and 1. Then we would meet again at funerals. We were so fortunate to meet one last time last fall after John King's funeral. Now it is time to say good-bye to my fun loving prankster cousin and wish I could be at his funeral. I didn't realize how much I would miss him.

Glynn was an awesome friend always had a smile and a kind word. Enjoyed talking with him on different occasions and always had a great personality. He will definitely be missed by many. My humble prayer is that God wrap a hedge around Gayla give her peace and comfort only as he can in the days weeks and months to come. They don't make em like your Daddy anymore!!!! He was one of a kind!! 💜🙏
