“ I remember being a little girl and you guys lived on Claremont and we would be in the yard for a party or gathering and here comes Roger with his contagious laughter. His laughter caught the whole rooms attention and you couldn't help but smile. Thank you for adding so many smiles in my childhood I will for ever cherish the gift of laughter you shared. May god bless the Howard family and my condolences to you all. I pray the lord gives you guys strength in this unforeseen time.
