“ Dear Mr.Roger, I am sorry that you lost your son. I will pray that God will help you through this difficult time. I will always remember you and your son at the ballpark. Both of you share a love for baseball, like I do. Please try to remember the good memories and they will carry you through. I don't know if you remember me, but I was the boy that fell of the high-dive (city pool) and had the bad accident. I remember as they were carrying me out on the stretcher, you were standing there. Your face had the saddest look. God help me get better and he will help you get better too. I love you Roger.
