Rip Ronnie Lynn you were a fixture in my home back when y'all were sixteen and you are in the memories of watching my children grow up so I watched you learn fall in love and being such a good daddy. We talked often after I lost stormie and you tried hard to comfort a momma grieving for her baby And I am so sad this is now something your momma will have to do. So many memories that made me laugh now bring tears I so wish you weren't gone I'm so tired of gone and goodbyes never said. I'll remember you And tell about your silly loving goofy amazing heart and never let them forget you were here. Hug those already there that left to don and hug my baby girl and my grandboy Nate and Brilee Grace extra hard for me please I'm gonna miss you kiddo hard but we'll meet again Ronnie friends don't forget I promise love you and I'm do sorry prayers for your momma and them beautiful sons I'll try to be there if they need anything I'll check on them after your mommas has a bit to gather to herself mommas need their children here not in heaven and it takes a minute to find air ❤️
