“ Mrs. Sonna Fae was a sweet soul. She was a regular patron at the Parsons Public Library. She was a very gentle and kind person. she was always quiet spoken. We all will miss her sweet smile and her "Good morning." greetings. Fly high sweet Sonna Fae. Love Ronnie Beasley.

“ Sonna Fae was my “forever “ friend. We have known each other our entire lives. Besides being my best friend, she was one of my “sisters” also. My mother always said that Sonna Fae was one of her girls, because she was always at our house. The beautiful memories I have of our decades of time together is a gift from God. Her cheerful voice, laughter and unchanging love for me will live in my heart , I will miss her , our long phone conversations, talking about our sons and grandchildren. But I know she is having the “party” of all parties with her ABBA Father now and I will see my beautiful, loving forever friend again. Brenda Townsend Norris

“ Sis. Sonna Fay was such a great inspiration. A humble person, sweet with words to all. I'll remember the day she came to our Ladies meeting...she was taking notes and afterwards she told me in her sweet voice, Sis Kathie, that was so good! Will miss her.
