“ Susie was always so kind to me. I was do honored to call her my friend. She had this big smile everytime I saw her. I remember when my daughter was born, Randy wanted to get her sometime, so he send Susie for help with the present and she got he this beautiful little pink dress with everything that when with it, shoes, stocking, panties with the lace and the socks with the lace. When Dog came out to bring me the gift, he told me that Susie picked it out, he looked at Toni as he always did and told her Mrs Susie helped him. Now being that Toni was only 3 weeks old at the time, Susie said that Randy thought it was so pretty and if I wanted someting else she would go and get her something else. Well I kept the dress and still have it . Thank you Susie for being so kind to my baby..You will be missed by all that loved you. Sleep in peace whit all the Angels, bones

“ *I have nothing but fond memories of all the Percy family. I considered myself part of the family as a high school friend of Becky & quickly established myself as an extended member. The only difference was that I was scared of "Red" & when he would tell us girls to quiet down, I would listen..looking back, I know his bark was worse than his bite. I remember when Susie & John first married & lived in a small house over by thie hospital. I think it was Becky & I that went to visit & probably to offer her some marital advise, since we had been married so much longer than her LOL. She informed us that she already had it figured out beginning with the fact that John wanted to use his towel one time & then wanted it washed. Susie stated that she doesn't have time for all that, so she was just putting them in the dryer, then folding them & replacing in the linen closet. I always wondered if John caught on to her timesaver. She was as beautiful inside as she was out & her presence here on earth will be missed, just like Randy is missed everyday. God bless one of the best families in Henderson Co...I love them all

“ In 2001, I was beginning my first year of teaching at Caywood and my three boys were beginning a new school year at a new school. It was exciting yet frightening for all of us; however, a little more scary for my little Zach who was medically fragile and had just finished his second grade year unsuccessfully at his former school. Upon meeting his new teacher, Zach soon looked forward to going to school and was quite smitten with the most wonderfully sweet, blonde beauty named Ms. Susie Webb! She helped Zach love school again and instilled a belief in him that he could learn. For this and many more reasons, I will always be grateful. I will miss you Ms. Susie!!! You were and always will be an inspiration to all of us!!

“ Everytime someone asks me who my favorite teacher was the answer is always Ms. Susie. She was the kindest, sweetest, and most caring teacher that I've ever had (and I've had A LOT!). She cared about us as if we were her own kids. She was one of those teachers that made you want to come to school because you knew you were not only going to learn a lot but have fun too. I have so many great memories from my year in her class that there's too many to mention. She always kept up with me and how I was doing. She cared so much that she even came to graduations. The world lost a wonderful person and teacher today but I can honestly say that she left a great legacy and example behind for those of us that had the opportunity and gift of knowing her! Her family and friends are in my prayers!

Sarah McPeake - November 14, 2013 at 08:30 PM

“ Susie and I shared a love of basketball and the Boston Celtics. When she and John went to Boston to see the Celtics play, she brought me back a Celtic souvenir. She was always thinking of others. Susie always had something good to say to you. She was always complementing you or encouraging you. I always knew I had a friend in Susie. I hope these words will let the Webbs know that Susie's life was valued and cherished by many. I pray that God will wrap his arms around the family and comfort them.

Our family is so sad to hear of Susie's passing. We have been remembering all of the wonderful memories of the Webb family living next door! The days at the lake, the rides to and from school, and just visiting in the yard. Ryan loved having Ms. Susie for his second grade teacher and getting to go to the classroom early because he rode to school with the teacher! John, Amanda and Kara we will remember her always and our thoughts and prayers are with you.

*Love you all,

I will miss Susie's sweet smile and face. She was such a good person. I have never heard an unkind word about Susie. She had a way of making whoever she was with feel special. I have had the pleasure of working and sharing different events with Susie and John for many years. It has been an honor to be her friend and I will forever cherish my memories of Susie. May you rejoice in your new heavenly home, free of pain, and sing praises to God with the angels that are rejoicing with you. Until we meet again one day, I will always remember you in my heart.
