“ Oh Tabi, I have so many wonderful memories of you - too many to count. Even as I write this, I can't help but laugh and smile thinking about all the wild crazy mess we used to get ourselves into. You were a bundle of life and adventure for sure...no doubt you got that from Pat. :) Thank you so much for all the fun, the laughs, the smiles, the trouble, the mischief, etc - Lord knows we had plenty of it, didn't we? I miss and love you much girl. See ya later, ok? ###imported-begin##Sloan Johnson - Atlanta Georgia###imported-end##

“ There are not words that would fit on this page and fully express what Tabby was and always will be to me. She was my best friend, my sister by choice and soulmate - a truly wonderful, fun, devoted and loving friend. My life will never be the same without her. I find peace and joy in the last twenty years that we had together. Those who have laughed with her know what I am talking about. She made me smile, she finished my sentences, and I never doubted that at least one person in this world loved me. She was beautiful, talented, intelligent and amazing. My life has been full of "Tabby stories" and I will smile at those, share those, and long for more of those for the rest of my time here apart from her. May all who knew her stop and remember your "Tabby stories" and smile, remembering the joy that she has added to each of us. May she be surrounded by those she missed and once again fill them with laughter.###imported-begin###Ruby Williams Walker###imported-end###

“ I have been so blessed to call Tabitha my friend since my freshmen year in high school. She was a ray of sunshine and always smiled and made it a priority to make everyone else smile around her. She was in our group of friends at school who ate lunch together, studied together, and had good times together. Sweet memories will live on in our hearts forever and we are better people for knowing her. She is forever one of my dear friends and I know that Heaven is a little sweeter because she is there.

With love,
