“ I went to Lexington High with Tammy for a short period and never saw her again. I am so sad to hear of her passing. I remember that she was a very sweet and polite girl in school. She was always nice to me and seemed to smile most of the time. I did not know her very well, but when i heard of her passing , I do remember these memories of her. That is a blessing in of itself. May God bless her family. Randall Lomax###imported-begin###Randall Lomax###imported-end###

“ Tammy, we hardly knew you, but you and Steve were like old friends right away. Cece and I were sure you would be fine after the surgery. I was looking forward to comparing our surgeries & trading information on what foods worked for us. I guess you don't have to worry at all about that anymore! You can have anything you want. Or so I hear.

Steve, you and your family are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Amme Hogan##imported-end##

“ Dear Steve and family,

Although I never met Tammy, I followed her courageous battle against cancer on the ACOR website for rare cancers. We all are so saddened by the sudden and unexpected death of your wife.

Rest assured we all grieve with you! You are in all of our hearts, our thoughts and prayers are with you continually.

May God Give Your Comfort, during this difficult time.

I pray that you have the friends and family support that you need Steve, and that you will continue on, blessed in knowing that you had so many precious years with Tammy. We do not always understand God's ways, but rest assured He will not abandon you, and will give you the strength that you need to carry on.

God bless you!!

Sincerely,

“ Tammy shined bright for the 6 months or so that she was on our online cancer support group, Acor. Her love of life and her husband, Steve, and the 3 doggies was very evident. Her love of Jesus was also in the forefront. Please give my condolences to Steve, and family. Carcinoid cancer and NETS, is a neuroendocrine cancer that is supposed to be rare. We seem to see more of it everyday. Tammy gave it a good fight. Rest in peace and God bless you.##imported-begin##Jim Spillane##imported-end##

“ I am so shocked to see this on Pafford's site. I had Tammy in Health Occupations in Lexington High School. She was a sweet, wonderful student and later, young woman. I will miss seeing her around. I am so sorry for the family's loss. She will be deeply missed.##imported-begin##Joyce Fesmire##imported-end##

“ I talked to Tammy just a few days before her trip and surgery at Kenner about how life would be for her without a stomach. I was looking forward to talking with her again after she was on her feet and I am so sad that that will not happen now. I think she and I would have become friends. I am so very sorry about your loss. I pray that your memories of Tammy will help sustain you every day.
