“ I was sad today to see this notice of Tim's passing. We were classmates at Lexington and were both in the class of '79. Tim may have been small in stature but was tough and gritty. I remember this from the years of playing baseball together. May God bless all the family at this time and comfort them during this time.

I only knew Tim for the short year that he worked at Autozone and I am very honored to call him my friend. He was truly one of a kind and always made everyone laugh no matter what kind of day they were having.. He made a great impression on my life and I will never forget him. I will truly miss him. R.I.P Tim.. Heaven has gained another wonderful Angel.

“ I grew up beside him and he was always doing something, from about seven years old on, absolutely amazing, He loved to jump off the top houses just to show us he could. He pushed everything he did to the limit, and way past most peoples. When people can call you by one name and everybody knows who it is you have made a lasting impression.

“ I graduated with Tim at Lexington High School. He was always such a joy to be around. I remember our junior year, we DECA together with Mr. Fred Fiddler. Tim and several of the guys in class always were pulling mischevious stunts on Mr. Fiddler, Tim being the ring leader. He will be greatly missed by many. Praying for his family.

Ziggy was small in stature but He did everything he did in a large way, sad to see another member of the "Class of 79" passing.

The members and clergy of the Colfax United Methodist Church shares their grief with the entire congregation at Wesleyan Church in the sudden death of Pastor Tim. He was truly a man of God that used his gifts and talents for proclaiming the message of our Christian faith. All of us in this community of Colfax feel the sadness of his death. God bless.
