“ *I'm so hurt to hear of Mr. Tim passing. I remember him from being a EMT, a policeman, and the post by being at the old Lexington Skateing Ring. I remember him standing there to meet you at the front door each weekend. I remember him letting me use his policeman whistle at my birthday party. He was a super and awesome guy. I always look forward to seeing him on Friday and Saturday nights. My thoughts and prayers to his family. We all now have another angel watching over us.
Rest In Peace my friend.....Mr. Tim Sellers

“ Everyone has mentors, they often change as we go through life. Time passes, and you and your mentor/friend sometime grow apart but the lessons you learn stay with you the rest of your life. Their influence is what molds and makes you into who you are. I have been fortunate to have many. Starting with my father, Mike Holt and Dan Lutz, O'Neal Ellis, Ray Berryman, David Rogers, and others, all have had a major influence on my life.

This morning I received the sad news that one of my first and most influential friends has passed away.

My first mentor when I moved to Lexington Tn.,

Timothy Harold Sellers died yesterday afternoon after a long battle with many health issues.

Tim took me under his wing early on and help mold me in part to whom I am.

Tim helped me get my start in public service.

As Unit Director of the Henderson County Rescue Squad he nominated me for membership.

This was the catalyst that allowed me to chase and live my dreams.

He recommended me for a dispatcher job with the Henderson County Sheriffs Dept. And as a sergeant with the Lexington Police Department was instrumental in me getting a job with the city fire then city police departments. Tim was also an EMT who encouraged me to go to EMT school and then, along with O'Neal Ellis, helped me obtain my first EMS job, part time, with the local ambulance service.

As time progressed, Tim encouraged me to continue my career and take a chance by moving from an area that I loved and called home for many years.

As time passed, life went on and we were not able maintain contact but our friendship bridged the miles. Even after his illness had taken its toll and he was confined to a wheelchair, he honored me by being a groomsman at my wedding.

Tim, like everyone else was not perfect, but when it's all said and done,

Tim was a good man.

Tim was my friend.

I will miss my friend.

May God's Grace be upon his wife and family,

Rest in Peace my friend, you did a good job, at least with me..

Thank You.

As I remember you I will think of the verses in, ironically, the book of 2 Timothy, ch 4 v. 6-8.

Always, Allen Wilkerson
