Bro. & Sis. Morimano, Sis. Warren and Martin church family.....Our love and concern goes out to you at the passing of such a wonderful man. Nothing can take the hurt from your hearts but the certainty that our brother was doing what he loved best, being with those closest to him while loving his God. “ Brother Toby Warren was a kind and faithful man who loved his family and loved others unconditionally. I shall never forget the many nights he picked me up in Lexington, TN to go to Center Hill Holiness Church. I'd squeeze in the back with his 2 teenagers and away we'd go. I have nothing but fond memories of Brother Warren during that 2 year period while I was finishing my dissertation@ Union University in Jackson, TN. He was patient, humble, and had a wonderful sense of humor. He was a student also, and it was during that time that he earned his surgical tech credentials. Even though he worked and went to school, he'd still take time to share funny and interesting stories. On my last day in Lexington, TN, I remember Bro. Toby, Sis. Carrie, and others from the church, helping me pack for my move. My heart swells when I think of what a blessing he was to all who knew him. My love, prayers and condolences to his lovely wife Carrie , his son Johnathan and family, and his daughter Anna May he rest in the presence of the Lord forever.

“ I will never forget the jumping ability Toby possessed, at 6'-2" and he dunks straight up off two feet. 1981, Senior year Chalmette High School at Brother Martin opening tip of the basketball game, I tip the basketball to Toby and he takes just 3 dribbles and DUNK. Wow seems like yesterday. He could shoot the lights out, too.... So guys, those basketball stories, I am sure he told all of yall, they are actually true.

God Bless You Toby Warren, my friend and teammate.

“ I am shocked and saddened to hear of Toby's passing but I am equally happy because I know for sure he is in Heaven. He was an awesome christian and a fantastic Certified Surgical Technologist whom I had the honor of teaching and him teaching me.

“ We were shocked to hear the sad news of Toby's death. Have been, and will be praying for his wife, Carrie, son, Jonathan, and daughter, Anna. I don't know why this memory popped up when thinking of Toby, but we've had some good times together. One memory that I'm thinking of was of the "gallons" of ice cream that we shared in our home. He did love his ice cream. God bless the family. Brother and Sister Schroader
