“ The last time I saw Tom was a good memory. Several of us met to eat at a restaurant and he was laughing, telling stories and enjoying the fellowship. I am glad to have that memory.

“ Dear Beth and family, I send my deepest sympathy at the loss of your brother. I treasure the memories your family and mine have shared over the years in theatre and civic activities. Lexington is a better place because The Petersons were here.

Beth, I am Tom's neighbor across the street. I have been concerned about him for a while I am sorry for your loss. I remember Civic League with you and your mother and attending church with you. Tom walked faithfully and I saw him each afternoon as he headed down the street. I admired him for exercising faithfully. May God bless you and your family. Sincerely, Renee McCollum

Beth I'm so sorry about your loss of Tom. He sat in front of me and my husband at church for years and after Gene's death he sat in front of me. He was a sweet, good person and he was a faithful member of the church. I enjoyed talking to him each Sunday. He will be greatly missed. Molly Wilson
