“ Im so sorry about Tony. He and I were first cousins. Our dads were brothers. We were close when we were little. I think we might have been a nightmare to Granny sometimes . But we sure had loads of fun especially with a pony he had.

Tony took that pony just inside granny's front door to show her it wouldn't hurt us. Granny was terrified of it and we would put a wide belt around us and let that pony pick us up by that belt. Its a wonder we hadn't got seriously hurt sometime. Once we got caught in the basement with a box of snuff. Tony was just taking the lid off it when Granny caught us. She said "Tony, you kids want a dip of snuff"? Tony goes yeah! Granny filled our lip UP with Bruton Snuff. We laid on a quilt in front of the fan in her living room the rest of the day sick as dogs! Granny knew exactly how to keep us in tow. We never tried snuff again.

Sorry to hear about Tony. I remember playing with Tony when we were kids.

Is the granny you're referring to the same person as our great grand mother.? We called her Gran Mammy. She always had that snuff can beside her rocker. 😊 I still have her rocking chair.
