“ Missing and loving my precious Mutti, life is so lonely with out you, but trying so hard to focus on that you and Papa are together again, also with your family that you lost so early in your childhood. Life has changed as we knew it, and we are all trying to deal with you being gone. I can not ever thank you enough for all you and Papa have done for all of us. We had a loving home, thanks to you and Papa Love you, love you, love you.....Erna "Anna"

“ Anna , Glenn and Family, Mutti will really be missed. One of the happiest persons I have e had the pleasure of knowing. She always had a smile on her face . She was sincere .My husband Paul and I lived away from the area many years .We got to know her after we moved back here.I knew the story of her and Mr.Nick and how they got to the USA. Had the pleasure of meeting the two of them at the Scotts Hill S.C.May God give each one of you the comfort thru the days ahead as only He can

“ For the entire family... Muttie was loved by so many, and the people who had the honor to meet her, know her, and be a part of her family are the ones that truly received the blessing. She was a wonderful lady, and I'm sure she is enjoying her view with Papa sitting right beside her. My condolences to each of you. Loved her so...
