“ I too like Gary Shannon had Mrs. Violet as my second grade teacher at Scotts Hill School, she was my teacher the school year of 1966/1967. She was a wonderful teacher, and a very special lady in many ways. Some may say that Mrs. Violet never had any children, but in fact Mrs. Violet has had hundreds of children that loved and respected her and still do to this very day. She always was and has been one of my favorite teachers and a very dear friend, one of whom I am going to miss. God Bless You Mrs. Violet, Rest In Peace My Dear Friend. To each of you, the members of Mrs. Violet's family please know that you will be in my thoughts and in all my prayers.##imported-begin##Mike Singleton##imported-end##
