“ Only today have I learned that my old friend and fellow worker at the former TDES, Robert Montgomery, passed last year. I am very sorry. Bob lived a long full life but still, I feel a profound loss. Bob was a fine man and excellent at his job. His courteous quiet voice and silver hair were his trademarks. I will miss his Christmas cards, sent every year from Dogwood Lane, Lexington, TN.

“ I just found out that Bob has passed away. I was a young man of 29 (I am now 76) when I worked with Bob in the Memphis Unemployment Insurance Office. He trained me to work as a Field Representative in UI Tax Operations. I have never known a better man to work with than Bob. He devoted a lot of time and effort to help me learn my job. I owe Bob a lot for his patience and understanding. We became good friends and I worked with Bob for many years when I was in management in Employment Security in Nashville and when I went to work with the US Dept of Labor in Atlanta. On several occasions Bob visited with my wife and I when he came to Atlanta. I became a private pilot when I worked in Memphis and one weekend I flew Bob back to Gibson County and we visited Humboldt and Bob took me to a country store that I believe he ran at one time. It was always a pleasure being in Bob's company. After I retired in 2005, Bob would call at Christmas to see how I was getting along. My life was better because I knew Bob Montgomery and I will always cherish the good times we had as fellow workers and life long friends.

“ The world was a better place because of the life of Robert Montgomery! I have many precious memories of Robert and my dad, Floyd Presley, when visits were made either by Robert here in Texas or by us to Tennessee. Robert was a true southern gentleman with all the genteel manners and social graces that go along with that image. He had a way about him that made anyone who came into his presence feel valued. He was a man of many interesting hobbies and activities which made him a fascinating man to talk and listen to. Robert was a great conversationalist with everyone. A man of integrity, Christian values, and social graces. He was an excellent example of a life well lived. I mourn the passing of Robert!

Love to the Montgomery family!
