“ Aunt Bill, you have been a constant in my life. I used to watch you mow your yard in the dead of winter, walk to your store after school, remember your laugh, and was blessed not only to be your neighbor for many years...but your nephew...and although my heart is broken...I am blessed to have my "Aunt Bill" memories. MeMaw Dean will miss you and so will I.##imported-begin##Donald Bryson##imported-end##

“ I remember when my sister needed a car and she gave them hers. She gave me my first paying job (mowing her yard)and employed my mother and sister for a long time. I remember walking to her store after school for years. She will be missed dearly. My children, my wife, and I loved her in life and will continue to love her in death. Until we meet again Aunt Bill.##imported-begin##John David Lewis##imported-end##

“ I will miss you, Aunt Bill. You bought me my first skateboard, sewed dresses for me when I was little, bought a new bike for me, let me spend the night with you, work for you, and always treated my brother, John, and me like your own grandchildren. You are a jewel, and I am so happy that the Lord took you to be free..free of your pain and suffering..on my 41st birthday. I love you.##imported-begin##Cindy Lewis Bryson##imported-end##
