“ Windell was a great co worker and friend. When he ask you how you were doing , you knew he truly was interested in how you were , and not just asking to make conversation. We would always joke and cut up when we would run into each other at work or in passing. Windell , you will be greatly missed by both family and friends ! May the LORD bless and keep you and place his hand of peace on your family and friends.

“ My heart is heavy at the passing of my dear cousin. We grew up together...lived right next door for so many years. Windell was a kind and loving person who loved his family. Because of not living close for many years now, we did not get to see him often but we will miss him. Our thoughts and prayers are with aunt Jeanette, Beneshia and Windell's daughters.
Love,
