“ "X" was a great guy - friendly, and fit in as part of the family from the time we first met him. We have never forgotten his visit with us years ago when he was here for his job. We had a birthday party for Janette, and all the teenagers adored him. We all had a wonderful time.

We wish we could have come for the funeral. Our love and prayers are with our precious cousins, Susie, Emilio and Raquel, and also with our very special Aunt and Uncle, Ray and Inez.

Love,

Barbara and J.P.

“Xavier will be missed so very, very much. He was a loving husband and devoted father who loved God with all his heart. This was a man who served in every sence of the word. He served his country, his family, his fellow man, our Lord Jesus Christ, and most profoundly, our Heavenly Father. He was a very dear friend and it is a great honor to have known a man like this who could light up a room with his huge smile. He was one of those people that would welcome you into his heart and life readily with instant friendship! X-man, you were a true super hero!##imported-begin##Christine Uyehara##imported-end##

“X, a dear and gentle soul, and truly a joy to be around... he will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with Suzie and his children, as we together look for the hope of the return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ when we shall see him face to face and rejoice in the victory over death. We love you.##imported-begin##Rev. Stephen and Patty Fay Roberts##imported-end##
